1. Rules of debate at meetings

- a Motions on the agenda shall be considered in the order that they appear unless the order is changed at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting.
- b A motion (including an amendment) shall not be progressed unless it has been moved and seconded.
- c A motion on the agenda that is not moved by its proposer may be treated by the chairman of the meeting as withdrawn.
- d If a motion (including an amendment) has been seconded, it may be withdrawn by the proposer only with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- e An amendment is a proposal to remove or add words to a motion. It shall not negate the motion.
- f If an amendment to the original motion is carried, the original motion becomes the substantive motion upon which further amendment(s) may be moved.
- g An amendment shall not be considered unless early verbal notice of it is given at the meeting and, if requested by the chairman of the meeting, is expressed in writing to the chairman.
- h A councillor may move an amendment to his own motion if agreed by the meeting. If a motion has already been seconded, the amendment shall be with the consent of the seconder and the meeting.
- i If there is more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion, the amendments shall be moved in the order directed by the chairman.
- j Subject to standing order 1(k) below, only one amendment shall be moved and debated at a time, the order of which shall be directed by the chairman of the meeting.
- k One or more amendments may be discussed together if the chairman of the meeting considers this expedient but each amendment shall be voted upon separately.
- l A councillor may not move more than one amendment to an original or substantive motion.
- m The mover of an amendment has no right of reply at the end of debate on it.
- n Where a series of amendments to an original motion are carried, the mover of the original motion shall have a right of reply either at the end of debate of the first amendment or at the very end of debate on the final substantive motion immediately

- before it is put to the vote.
- o Unless permitted by the chairman of the meeting, a councillor may speak once in the debate on a motion except:
 - i. to speak on an amendment moved by another councillor;
 - ii. to move or speak on another amendment if the motion has been amended since he last spoke;
 - iii. to make a point of order;
 - iv. to give a personal explanation; or
 - v. in exercise of a right of reply.
 - p During the debate of a motion, a councillor may interrupt only on a point of order or a personal explanation and the councillor who was interrupted shall stop speaking. A councillor raising a point of order shall identify the standing order which he considers has been breached or specify the other irregularity in the proceedings of the meeting he is concerned by.
 - q A point of order shall be decided by the chairman of the meeting and his decision shall be final.
 - r When a motion is under debate, no other motion shall be moved except:
 - i. to amend the motion;
 - ii. to proceed to the next business;
 - iii. to adjourn the debate;
 - iv. to put the motion to a vote;
 - v. to ask a person to be no longer heard or to leave the meeting;
 - vi. to refer a motion to a committee or sub-committee for consideration;
 - vii. to exclude the public and press;
 - viii. to adjourn the meeting; or
 - ix. to suspend particular standing order(s) excepting those which reflect mandatory statutory requirements.
 - s Before an original or substantive motion is put to the vote, the chairman of the meeting shall be satisfied that the motion has been sufficiently debated and that the mover of the motion under debate has exercised or waived his right of reply.
 - t Excluding motions moved under standing order 1(r) above, the contributions or speeches by a councillor shall relate only to the motion under discussion and shall not exceed 3 minutes without the consent of the chairman of the meeting.
 - u A record of the proposer, seconder and those agreeing and those voting against is included within the minutes.

2. Disorderly conduct at meetings

- a No person shall obstruct the transaction of business at a meeting or behave offensively or improperly. If this standing order is ignored, the chairman of the meeting shall request such person(s) to moderate or improve their conduct.
- b If person(s) disregard the request of the chairman of the meeting to moderate or improve their conduct, any councillor or the chairman of the meeting may move that the person be no longer heard or excluded from the meeting. The motion, if seconded, shall be put to the vote without discussion.
- c If a resolution made under standing order 2(b) above is ignored, the chairman of the meeting may take further reasonable steps to restore order or to progress the meeting. This may include temporarily suspending or closing the meeting.

3. Meetings generally

Full Council meetings

Committee meetings

Sub-committee meetings

- a Meetings shall not take place in premises which at the time of the meeting are used for the supply of alcohol, unless no other premises are available free of charge or at a reasonable cost.

7a. Pre-Planning Application Terms of Reference

This document sets out the protocol Councillors must follow when in receipt of notification from applicants their intention to submit a pre-planning application.

Procedures for dealing with pre-planning applications:

- On receipt of a pre-planning application, the Parish Council will decline to engage with applicants prior receipt of a formal application. The Clerk will do so in writing.

'Thank you for the information you have provided to the Parish Council in relation to your pre-planning application for the site [enter site name], dated [enter date]. The Parish Council do not engage with applicants until the Parish Council are in receipt of a formal planning application received from Test Valley Borough Council.

Once a formal application has been received from the Borough Council, you may be invited to attend a formal meeting, to allow you to present to the Parish Council and their Parishioners.'

- Notification of the pre-application will be provided to Parishioners, by way of a formal notice being placed on the Parish Council's noticeboards and website.
- Notification will be presented, on formal letterhead of the Parish Council, as:

NOTICE TO RESIDENTS

Abbotts Ann Parish Council have received notification from [enter name of the company], that they are intending to submit a planning application for the site [enter site name].

The Parish Council have declined to engage with the applicant until a formal application has been received directly from Test Valley Borough Council.

Once in receipt of a formal application, the Parish Council will arrange for an extraordinary planning meeting to be held within the Parish to allow for members of the public to express concerns and raise questions relating to the application concerned.

The applicants may be invited to attend such a meeting, which will allow Parishioners to raise their enquiries directly with the applicant.'

- Normal procedures for the arrangement of an extraordinary meeting will be carried out.
- An invitation will be formally made by the Clerk, inviting the applicant to attend the extraordinary meeting, in writing.
- The meeting will be structured to allow for the following order of discussion:
 1. Apologies will be presented.
 2. Declarations of Interest will be made.
 3. Applicant will be invited to present to the Council members and Members of the Public.
 4. Members of the Public will be invited to ask questions to the applicant.
 5. Councillors will consider the facts of the application and formally discuss in the normal practise, which is an unbiased and non-predetermined manner.
 6. Councillors to make a formal resolution as to what response will be submitted to Test Valley Borough Council and set out the material reasons behind their decision to respond in that particular manner.
- Minutes will be taken from the meeting under normal practise.
- Members will agree and approve the formal response to be submitted to TVBC in the usual way.
- Once the formal response has been made to TVBC, a copy can be provided to those members of the public requesting one. A copy will also be within the public domain, via the Test Valley Borough Council Planning Portal, under the relevant planning application.

7b. Planning Application Terms of Reference

This document sets out the protocol the Council members must follow, when considering planning applications.

Procedures for dealing with Planning Applications

- All members of Abbotts Ann Parish Council will consider planning applications
- The quorum of the Committee is per the Council's standing orders.
- The Committee shall undertake the following roles and functions:

Purpose

To make recommendations;

In relation to the approval or otherwise of any development plan or strategy proposals under planning legislation affecting the parish;

In respect of representations to the Local Planning Authority in support of any application;

In relation to any arrangements between the Parish Council and the Local Planning Authority about the involvement of the Parish Council in the discharge of planning functions;

To make representations to the Local Planning Authority on any application referred to the Parish Council and on any other planning matter that affects the parish.

Process for considering planning applications

The Clerk will receive all planning applications by post directly from Test Valley Borough Council Planning Department.

Members of the Parish Council will use TVBC's Planning Portal to review applications before the meeting. Hard copies of applications as received will be available at the relevant Council meeting.

The application will be advertised as an agenda item at the next Council meeting due to be held.

The Parish Council will consider as to whether the Council support or object to the proposal at the meeting as advertised.

Once a proposal has been passed as to whether to support or object to an application, the Clerk will record this within the Minutes and respond to TVBC Planning Department in the appropriate manner and timeframe.

Should the public expiry date fall before the next available Council meeting then the Clerk will confirm the determination deadline with TVBC Planning Department and ensure comments can be submitted before that deadline.)

The Parish Council will have the right to call an extraordinary meeting where necessary, should an application response date fall outside of an upcoming Council meeting and members agree a meeting is appropriate.

Members of the Parish Council, as individuals, are not lawfully able to predetermine any decision to support or object a proposal. All decisions must carry a majority vote. Any Councillor that appears to have a predetermined vote will not be able to partake in any future voting process in relation to the proposal or they will be open to legal challenge by judicial review.

Declaration of Interests:

Any member of the Parish Council who has a pecuniary interest should not comment on the application and must not influence the response in any way.

8. Previous resolutions

- a A resolution shall not be reversed within six months except either by a special motion, which requires written notice by at least 3 councillors to be given to the Proper Officer in accordance with standing order 9 below, or by a motion moved in pursuance of the recommendation of a committee or a sub-committee.
- b When a motion moved pursuant to standing order 7(a) above has been disposed of, no similar motion may be moved within a further six months.

9. Voting on appointments

- a Where more than two persons have been nominated for a position to be filled by the council and none of those persons has received an absolute majority of votes in their favour, the name of the person having the least number of votes shall be struck off the list and a fresh vote taken. This process shall continue until a majority of votes is given in favour of one person. A tie in votes may be settled by the casting vote exercisable by the chairman of the meeting.

10. Motions for a meeting that require written notice to be given to the Proper Officer

- a A motion shall relate to the responsibilities of the meeting which it is tabled for and in any event shall relate to the performance of the council's statutory functions, powers and obligations or an issue which specifically affects the council's area or its residents.
- b No motion may be moved at a meeting unless it is on the agenda and the mover has given written notice of its wording to the Proper Officer at least 5 clear days before the meeting. Clear days do not include the day of the notice or the day of the meeting.

- c The Proper Officer may, before including a motion on the agenda received in accordance with standing order 9(b) above, correct obvious grammatical or typographical errors in the wording of the motion.
- d If the Proper Officer considers the wording of a motion received in accordance with standing order 9(b) above is not clear in meaning, the motion shall be rejected until the mover of the motion resubmits it in writing to the Proper Officer so that it can be understood at least 7 clear days before the meeting.
- e If the wording or subject of a proposed motion is considered improper, the Proper Officer shall consult with the chairman of the forthcoming meeting or, as the case may be, the councillors who have convened the meeting, to consider whether the motion shall be included in the agenda or rejected.
- f Subject to standing order 9(e) above, the decision of the Proper Officer as to whether or not to include the motion on the agenda shall be final.
- g Motions received shall be recorded and numbered in the order that they are received.
- h Motions rejected shall be recorded with an explanation by the Proper Officer for their rejection.

11. Motions at a meeting that do not require written notice

- a The following motions may be moved at a meeting without written notice to the Proper Officer;
 - i. to correct an inaccuracy in the draft minutes of a meeting;
 - ii. to move to a vote;
 - iii. to defer consideration of a motion;
 - iv. to refer a motion to a particular committee or sub-committee;
 - v. to appoint a person to preside at a meeting;
 - vi. to change the order of business on the agenda;
 - vii. to proceed to the next business on the agenda;
 - viii. to require a written report;
 - ix. to appoint a committee or sub-committee and their members;
 - x. to extend the time limits for speaking;
 - xi. to exclude the press and public from a meeting in respect of confidential or sensitive information which is prejudicial to the public interest;
 - xii. to not hear further from a councillor or a member of the public;
 - xiii. to exclude a councillor or member of the public for disorderly conduct;
 - xiv. to temporarily suspend the meeting;
 - xv. to suspend a particular standing order (unless it reflects mandatory statutory requirements);

- xvi. to adjourn the meeting; or
- xvii. to close a meeting.

12. Handling confidential or sensitive information

- a The agenda, papers that support the agenda and the minutes of a meeting shall not disclose or otherwise undermine confidential or sensitive information which for special reasons would not be in the public interest.
- b Councillors and staff shall not disclose confidential or sensitive information which for special reasons would not be in the public interest.

13. Draft minutes

- a If the draft minutes of a preceding meeting have been served on councillors with the agenda to attend the meeting at which they are due to be approved for accuracy, they shall be taken as read.
- b There shall be no discussion about the draft minutes of a preceding meeting except in relation to their accuracy. A motion to correct an inaccuracy in the draft minutes shall be moved in accordance with standing order 10(a)(i) above.
- c The accuracy of draft minutes, including any amendment(s) made to them, shall be confirmed by resolution and shall be signed by the chairman of the meeting and stand as an accurate record of the meeting to which the minutes relate.
- d If the chairman of the meeting does not consider the minutes to be an accurate record of the meeting to which they relate, he shall sign the minutes and include a paragraph in the following terms or to the same effect:

“The chairman of this meeting does not believe that the minutes of the meeting of the () held on [date] in respect of () were a correct record but his view was not upheld by the meeting and the minutes are confirmed as an accurate record of the proceedings.”
- e Upon a resolution which confirms the accuracy of the minutes of a meeting, the draft minutes or recordings of the meeting for which approved minutes exist shall be destroyed.
- f Draft minutes will be displayed on Parish noticeboards and on the website.

14. Code of conduct and dispensations

See also standing order 3(t) above.

- a All councillors and non-councillors with voting rights shall observe the code of conduct adopted by the council.
- b Unless he has been granted a dispensation, a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights shall withdraw from a meeting when it is considering a matter in which he has a disclosable pecuniary interest. He may return to the meeting after it has considered the matter in which he had the interest.
- c Unless he has been granted a dispensation, a councillor or non-councillor with voting rights shall withdraw from a meeting when it is considering a matter in which he has another interest if so required by the council's code of conduct. He may return to the meeting after it has considered the matter in which he had the interest.
- d Dispensation requests shall be in writing and submitted to the Proper Officer as soon as possible before the meeting, or failing that, at the start of the meeting for which the dispensation is required.
- e A decision as to whether to grant a dispensation shall be made by the Proper Officer by a meeting of the council, or committee or sub-committee for which the dispensation is required and that decision is final.
- f A dispensation request shall confirm:
 - i. the description and the nature of the disclosable pecuniary interest or other interest to which the request for the dispensation relates;
 - ii. whether the dispensation is required to participate at a meeting in a discussion only or a discussion and a vote;
 - iii. the date of the meeting or the period (not exceeding four years) for which the dispensation is sought; and
 - iv. an explanation as to why the dispensation is sought.

Subject to standing orders 13(d) and (f) above, dispensations requests shall be considered by the Proper Officer before the meeting or, if this is not possible, at the start of the meeting for which the dispensation is required OR at the beginning of the meeting of the council, or committee or a sub-committee for which the dispensation is required.

- g A dispensation may be granted in accordance with standing order 13(e) above if having regard to all relevant circumstances the following applies:
